

HOUSE WITHOUT A KEY'S LITERARY HISTORY: HALEKULANI LIVING PRESENTS ACCLAIMED AUTHOR YUNTE HUANG

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

HONOLULU – April 23, 2013 – Halekulani, celebrated for its personalized service, masterful cuisine and innovative hospitality, presents a unique Halekulani Living event at House Without A Key on May 18. For generations in Hawaii, the legendary outdoor gathering spot has been known for its unforgettable sunset, nightly Hawaiian entertainment and signature Mai Tais, however, many are unfamiliar with its rich historical connection to Earl Derr Biggers' inspiration at Halekulani for the famous literary detective, Charlie Chan.

What role did Halekulani have in inspiring the book?

On Saturday May 18 at 4:00 pm, guests are invited to join nationally acclaimed author Yunte Huang, who details this rich history and cultural impact in his award-winning book Charlie Chan: The Untold Story of the Honorable Detective. Guests of the event will receive a copy of the bestseller, which has garnered multiple national awards and accolades, including honors from the New York Times and Los Angeles Times.

Cost to attend is $40, including light refreshments; event proceeds to benefit the Hawaii Book and Music Festival. For reservations, please contact Halekulani Dining Reservations at (808) 923-2311.

Since 2006, Halekulani Living has provided guests and locals with unparalleled, immersive, authentic and memorable experiences, catering to distinct interests and cultural desires of Halekulani's guests and patrons.
